TALKING ABOUT HOMETOWN

CLASS INTRODUCTION

In turn introduce yourself using the following information:

- Name
- Age
- Job
- Place you live
- Hobby
Class Rules

1. Use English only
2. Practice speaking on a topic under the guidance of the teacher
3. Don’t do personal things in the class
1. Vocabulary game:
Read out loud the poem “Hometown” and list all the things related to the writer’s hometown.

Hometown

I miss the quiet nights, the trusted friends,
The movie nights that never end.
I miss the smells and sounds and sights,
The after-midnight-blinking traffic lights.

I miss the familiar streets and places,
And I miss the most the darling faces
Of friends and family and others as dear.
Oh, to have them again so near.

Here, miles from where I set out,
I have friends who like me, no doubt.
They're just not the same as those old and worn;
Those precious ones whose distance I mourn.
2. Where is your hometown? Is there any attraction in your hometown?

3. Discuss the question with your partner: If you could change one thing in your hometown, what would you change and why?
4. Role-play

A: Your partner has just made a special dish, which reminds you of your hometown. Share with him/her what you miss the most about your hometown.

B: You’re A’s partner. Talk with A.
